PILE IN HERE FOR THE FOURTH

Off Shore Arrivals Many While Shore Craft Had Big Blueback Hauls.

Halibut went begging this morning, so to speak and prices took a decided drop from yesterday's figures on account of the dullness in trade, which the wholesalers say generally precedes the Fourth.

There were three fares on hand, but only two sold. Sch. Thomas A. Cromwell, Capt. Augustus G. Hall which lay over from yesterday sold to the New England Fish Company at 6 cents for white, 4 cents for small gray and 3 cents for large grays, while sch. Lucinda I. Lowell which arrived yesterday afternoon with 15,000 pounds sold to the American Halibut Company at the same figure.

Sch. Preceptor, Capt. John Campbell, back from a 20 days' trip to the Grand Banks has 20,000 pounds which remain unsold.

Quite a batch of fares came down from Boston, including sch. Teazer with 60,000 pounds fresh fish and 5000 pounds salt cod; Juno, 90,000 pounds fresh fish; Jorgina, 80,000 pounds fresh fish; Mary Edith, 25,000 pounds fresh fish.

Sch. Jubilee from the Rips has 40,000 pounds salt cod, while during the forenoon sch. Gladys and Nellie Capt. Watts arrived from off shore with a fare of 85,000 pounds fresh mixed fish.

The gasliners made some big hauls of bluebacks out in the bay, a large amount of which went for oil, while others sold for bait and to salt. Steamer Advance had 80 barrels of shad which sold to the splitters.

Today's Arrivals and Receipts.

The arrivals and receipts in detail are:

TRADE IS DULL TODAY AT BOSTON

Approach of Glorious Fourth Has Effect on All Fanned Goods Except Salmon.

Boston reported trade extremely dull this morning and up to 9 o'clock, several of the off-shore fares of ground fish remained unsold.

A total of 19 arrivals was recorded at the dock since yesterday. Most of the morning's receipts consisted of haddock and cod, while two swordfishermen landed 128 fish between them. Swordfish, like all other grades, was low, the dealers quoting six cents to eight cents a pound for them.

On account of the market conditions, several of the fresh fares will come here to split.

Wholesale dealers paid $1 to $1.5 a hundred for haddock, $3 for large cod, $2 for market cod, $1 to $1.25 for hake and $1.25 to $1.75 for pollock.

Bank Fishing Good.

A West End Firm received a message a couple of days ago saying that the Grand Bank fishing schooners all arrived home after making their first trip. Each had an excellent catch. They secured caplin bait without delay and went off for the second trip. J. B. Foote's vessels particularly well. There is every indication that the Grand Bank schooners will do well this year.—St. John's, N. F., Herald.

Here to Fit For Seining.

Steamer Whileaway, owned by the Machiasport Fish Company of Machiasport, Maine, has arrived here and will fit for seining, under supervision of Lufkin & Tarr, who are her agents here.

The craft was originally built for cup defender and measures 58 feet length and 19 feet beam.
